INTRODUCTION

A millennium ago, Spain was the center of the Jewish world. A Muslim land where Jews were at the pinnacle of commerce, finance, the arts and diplomacy. Our tour is flavored with memories of that Golden Age of Sephardic Jewry. You'll encounter glimpses of this historic presence in Toledo, Granada, Cordoba & Seville. But Spain is not only ancient; it is vibrant and ultra-modern while still able to retain the charming aura of a more leisured era. Spain is the art of Goya, El Greco & Velazquez – the land of Paella, Julio Iglesias, Antonio Banderas & Rafa Nadal.

INTRODUCTION

Unique in Jewish history, India is a land where Jews have never been persecuted in their over 2,000 years of residence. A place of special meaning and mystery, India is a country of extremes and puzzling paradox. A country with a culture uniquely its own. India's history of Jewish settlement dates back to the 1st century with the arrival of those fleeing persecution after the destruction of the Second Temple. A visit to India is a revealing and intriguing immersion into the more exotic aspects of Jewish life and culture. It is a truly illuminating journey.

A discovery of a fascinating country. Charming, exotic and totally sophisticated – and a mere 6 hours from New York City. See the splendors of Rabat, Morocco's imperial capital, ancient Meknes & Fes, the jet set oasis of Marrakech and cosmopolitan Casablanca. Jews have lived here for 2,500 years. In 1492, it was in Morocco that a majority of Spanish Jews sought refuge after the expulsion. During the Nazi-Vichy occupation of World War II, King Mohammed V earned the Sobriquet "Defender of the Jews" for refusing to cooperate with the occupiers' anti-semitic dictates.

PRICE CHARTS

Price charts indicate the total tour price per person, land only based on two in a room. Prices in this catalogue are good as of May 15, 2010.

GETTING THERE

HOTELS: We feature hotels specially selected for its location and five star features. We're occasionally obliged to make substitutions. All hotels offer us standard grade rooms. If you're arriving at hotel before midday, please be patient if check-out delays preparation of your room.

TRAVELING ALONE: Single rooms are limited, so please reserve early. We can also try to match you with a roommate. Sharing a room requires flexibility and tolerance, and we can only assign you a roommate if someone else on your tour wants to share.

THREE IN A ROOM: We can usually arrange for 3 travelers to occupy one room. But for adults, the reduction in cost is tiny, and you'll be in a standard room for two with an extra foldaway bed and it can get very cramped. Most European hotels do not have 'triple' rooms.

MEALS: We don't feature "standard" menus – we always try to make each included meal special. Breakfasts are usually American Buffet-Style. Beverages are not included with meals, except where indicated.

KASHRUT: In Israel, all hotels & and most restaurants included in our tours are Kosher. In the rest of the world, hotels & most restaurants aren't kosher. Whenever we order a pre-set menu, we ensure that a fish, dairy or vegetarian meal be available for those who prefer it. And shellfish & pork never appear on a pre-set menu.

ON TOUR

Baggage:

Because of restricted storage space on motor coaches, and because packing becomes a headache, we limit travelers to one large suitcase per person on all our tours. Sorry, we just can't accept more luggage than this.

Your Itinerary:

The itinerary sent with your documents will detail your schedule. If for any reason, you leave your tour early – or choose to miss any part of it – there can be no refunds for unused services.

Saturdays & Holidays:

Our tours observe Shabbat & Jewish Holidays. We schedule appropriate walking tours, otherwise Shabbat & Jewish holidays are days at leisure. In Israel, we follow the custom of single-day Shavuot, Sukkot and Pesach observance. Tours over holidays invariably involve rescheduling the itinerary; we sometimes have to substitute or omit some sites and stores & restaurants may be closed.

Motor Coaches

We utilize luxury motor coaches with air-conditioning, wherever necessary. Your Tour Manager arranges a daily rotation of seats to ensure everybody an opportunity to sit up front. In many countries, motor coaches don't have restrooms; nor do we permit smoking on tour buses. For smaller groups, we utilize air-conditioned cars (7-11 seaters)

Passports/Visas

All tour participants must travel with a passport valid for at least 6 months after your tour ends. American citizens don't need visas for most countries. For tours to countries for which Americans require a visa, we'll include instructions and application forms in your Confirmation Kit.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

Travelers should be in stable health, and be confident of their ability to undertake the tour chosen. Every tour includes a substantial amount of walking. Tour participants who require assistance must be accompanied by a helper capable of, and totally responsible for, providing such assistance. Please consult our reservations staff, as well as your physician, if you're in doubt about your ability to undertake any tour you're considering. Also, your physician can let you know if he/she or the U.S. Public Health Service has recommendations on special health precautions relevant to your destination.

TRANSFERRING TOURS:

For the most part, you can transfer your reservation from one tour or date to another without penalty up to 60 days before departure. Thereafter regular Cancellation penalties may apply.

CANCELLING A TOUR

Cancellation fees aren't imposed to punish; we try hard to keep them as low as possible, but they represent a very real combination of administrative expenses, foregone economic opportunities and non-recoverable deposits. Moreover, many tours are calculated on low-cost non-refundable air tickets, so if you cancel 30 days or less before travel, they can't be refunded.

RESPONSIBILITY

Travel With Jacob, Jewish Travel Worldwide division of Isramworld, and their representatives abroad (hereafter referred to as "We") act only as agents for the tour members in making arrangements for hotels, transportation, touring, restaurants or any other services in connection with the itinerary. The itineraries published in this tour catalogue are sample itineraries. We reserve the right to cancel or change itineraries and to substitute services for any reason without notice. The sequence of cities & distribution and amounts of touring & leisure time is subject to change. The right is reserved to substitute another scholar-lecturer for the scholar-lecturer originally scheduled, or to withdraw the services of a scholar-lecturer altogether, and such substitution or withdrawal is not a basis for participant cancellation or refund. We reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any tour participant at any time before or during the tour, for any reason whatsoever, including failure to complete tour payment in accordance with our published schedule, and in the event of passengers whose mental or physical condition or general behavior or deportment impedes the operation of the tour or affects the rights, welfare or enjoyment of other tour participants. It is agreed by and between the passenger(s) that all disputes and matters whatever arising under, in connection with or incident to this agreement shall be litigated, if at all, in and before a court located in the City of New York, New York State, U.S.A. to the exclusion of the courts of any other city, state or country. In view of statutory or contractual limitations that may apply to personal injury or property damage losses, the purchase of accident or baggage insurance is strongly recommended.
